1. ACeLT

The context and content of education is changing rapidly in the present pandemic situation. While high quality content is available almost free of cost, it is becoming increasingly challenging to capture the attention and imagination of students. Thus, there is a strong need to understand and redefine the role of a teacher so that technology can be leveraged to facilitate learning and education that is relevant in a volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous environment.

A new initiative to address these complexities with a solution in the form of Adarsh Centre for e-Learning and Teaching.

Activities of the cell

- E-content development & sharing
- E-Content delivery
- Conduct webinar
- Conduct other online activities

Committee has a room dedicated to this with systems, multi media speakers and LAN agencies should visit and make clear the modalities of assessment. A committee to monitor these audits must be formed and over the academic year the audits must be in the calendar of events. These will ensure that the audits are well spaced out and are not a burden during the term days. Students must be part of the committee and should spread the information to homes and to friend. This will ensure that the audit and the recommendations are passed on to all stake holders.

Best Practices 2

1. Title of the Practice

Adarsh Centre for e- learning and Teaching : ~~ACELT~~

2. Objectives of the Practice

Due to the COVID pandemic lockdown the students needed e learning material. The physically challenged students also needed them in audio and video forms. Students and staff members need awareness about COVID and prevention of spread, social distancing.

3. The Context

The need to reach students through electronic media was always planned. A 55-days lockdown throughout the country was started on March 25th, 2020, to reduce the transmission of the Corona virus. The outbreak is inextricably linked to the economy of the nation, as it has dramatically impeded industrial sectors.

Faculty members had to prepared in detail and record their classes and lectures through e learning and e teaching . This had to be edited and recorded. A technical team helped in the DVD preparation and labelling.

During the pandemic India, with a population of more than 1.34 billion—the second largest population in the world—was having difficulty in controlling the transmission of severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus among its population. Multiple strategies were necessary to handle the outbreak – the most important one was making people aware of the seriousness about the disease and teaching them prevention techniques.

4. The Practice

For normal students: These students were able to access the material by sending sms or whatsapp note or a mail to the librarian, the notes, question papers of past years and solved papers were kept available.

For Blind students: The Braille resource center of Bangalore University extended their facility to the college to record text books in audio form. These wer stored and distributed

For DEAF students:

Three interpreters are available. They are able to video the summary of lectures and keep them recorded. As and when needed these are sent. On aregular basis also the sign language interpreters help with the e learning

COVID time initiatives: Frontline workers – teachers and attenders were oriented- for self care by encouraging them to enroll for a two-week online course on COVID Sureksha from CMC Vellore & Azim Premji University. The facilities of ACELT was used. The COVID task team used electronic media to announce the COVID vaccine drives in the neighbourhood

5. Evidence of Success Many students who are DEAF have been admitted since the word went around that e learning material are available. The blind student also admitted with the assurance of audio text books.

Library was able to distribute past question papers and answers to solved papers during the pandemic electronically. The pass percentage improved. For faculty members also the recordings were a great help. Although library users were less in person, more accessed thro e mails. All the front line workers completed the COVID surelsha course and received certificates from CMC Vellore and Azim Premji University. The knowledge that they received helped them to have a proper awareness of the disease and measures to curtail its spread. Also whenever there was a case of infection in family or in college , everyone knew the procedure to take care of themselves and continue regular work. Five free vaccination drives were conducted for the stakeholders and public with the help of BBMP

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

This is a highly technical support for students and so needs a solid support of a technical team. Electricity to be available during the day so the recording goes undisturbed. It was hard to find faculty members and the technical team to find a common time when the recording could happen. The recording for the blind students had to be done in the Braille resource centre in University. So the text books were taken by the librarian to the Bangalore University Braille resource centre and audio recorded. The soft ware had to be made available in order for the blind students to listen. The Divyangjan students also needed an interpreter to do the sign language and her availability adjusted to technical teams recording

The COVID course was for 2 weeks and everyday all the participants had to spend their afternoon listening to the lectures and answering the quiz. Entry fee was Rs 100 each but the hospital waived it for us. During the first Vaccine drive , it was difficult to convince the public that this was necessary but soon many were convinced and a large number turned out for the drive.

7. Notes

Since the room for this practice requires expensive equipment, any institution that plans for this should budget for it in the beginning. VCDs must be available and a committee to monitor it must be available. Recorded VCDs must be catalogued and stored safely.

All faculty members need to co-operate and spend time. So the time tables can be planned and adjusted suitably

DISTINCTIVENESS

Introduction:

The Vision and Mission of the institution was established by the founders to reach out to the youth of the country to provide a holistic education. Inclusive education was always part of the long term goals for all. Thus the college admits physically handicapped students especially DEAF students and a few blind students and provide facilities and scholarships. These students attend classes along with all other students, participate in cultural and sports activities along with the other students. Thus the regular students are sensitized to the disabilities in the friends and learn to live together. The special

2.2.1 Special Programs for Advanced Learners & Slow Learners

The aim of the Institution is to make all students admitted in the college equipped and competent to face the challenges and to achieve more in their academics. To achieve this students need special attention and interventions to make their learning activity more enriching and effective. The following are the some of initiatives taken by the Institution

1. Bridge course
2. Remedial classes
3. Advanced programs
4. Value-added programs
5. Special assessment & 270 lang classes for Divyangjan

Bridge Course

Most of the Students admitted in first year are not so advance in some subject due to lack of facility. Some students are unknown to new subject as they do not have previous background. To boost up their academic skill and confidence of such students in learning process, all the departments of the college conduct the bridge course for first year students before the commencement of regular classes every year. The purpose of bridge course conduction not only to bridge the gap between subjects studied previously and the subject would be studying in first year but also clear and revise the fundamental concept of topic whether it is belong to the previous course or new course. Bridge Course conducted for all course a bridge course is being organized for one week and meticulous training in core subjects is provided for the fresher's. A structured plan is sort out for seven days. Every day the faculty members train the students for three hours as per schedule. Based on the outcome of the Bridge course and their PU results we have identified slow learners and Advanced learners.

FOR SLOW LEARNERS:

Remedial Coaching – Students with learning difficulties is provided additional help to bring them back into the mainstream classes. With proper remedial help, discussing previous year question paper ,closer supervision, more individual attention and the use of stimulating teaching strategies, these low academic achievers interest in learning is aroused and they make better progress.

Conducted extra classes for the difficult subjects (based on the previous university results) in the curriculum. We have divided slow learners into groups and encouraged them to do the projects With the support of the advanced learners. Encouraged them to attend value added programs. Remedial classes helped the students to score good marks in their next semesters and it also helped the Divyangjan students to score good percentage, they are Dharmendra , Jagadeesh got distinction marks in the University Examinations.

FOR ADVANCE LEARNERS

Advanced learners are identified on the basis of their performance in the class as well as class tests. College encouraged these students to take up higher level learning and academic responsibilities. Institute encourages advanced learners by –

- One of our Advanced learner called Janhavi, BBA student secured University rank.
- Encouraged the students to attend courses like, content beyond syllabi programs such as NPTEL, SWAYAM etc.
- Motivate the students to take part in college seminar, competitions in other colleges etc.
- Placement drives have arranged for Advanced learners and many of our students got placed in different companies.
